

REQUIREMENTS

by some countries to the applicants for higher education programs when enrolling foreigners and stateless persons for higher education

Palestine: the average score of the document on complete general secondary education should be at least 80%.

Republic of Lebanon: received training in secondary school in the following areas: General sciences, Natural Sciences, Sociology and Economics. The number of points is indicated in the document "Certificate of passing the exams for the diploma of secondary education". The passing score must be at least 280 points, regardless of the score of a separate exam in a particular subject or discipline (50% of the maximum possible score). The total maximum score is 560 points.

Arab Republic of Egypt: the minimum passing score of the document of complete general secondary education for students to enter the following specialties, provided that students have been trained in the required disciplines, should be:

- 222 Medicine - 98% (402 out of 410 points);
- 221 Dentistry - 97.8% (starting with 401 points);
- 226 Pharmacy, industrial pharmacy - 96.82% (397 out of 410 points)

The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan: minimum passing score of the document on complete general secondary education:

- 222 Medicine - 80%;
- 221 Dentistry - 80%;
- 226 Pharmacy, industrial pharmacy - 75%.

Republic of India: entrants to medical institutions of higher education in Ukraine should have a certificate confirming the successful completion of NEET. The Medical Council of India reserves the right to inspect the documents and, in case of violations of the current legislation of the Republic of India, to revoke such certificates.

Republic of Ghana: the minimum requirements for the results of the exams specified in the educational documents. The minimum number of disciplines is 6 (six), three of which must have a grade not lower than D7:

- Mathematics (basic course);
- English: Integrated Sciences / Social Sciences (the best grade from the specified disciplines is chosen).

The total number of points is not more than 36 ("one" or A1 is the highest score). The other three subjects are selected with the best results. Levels from A1 to D7 inclusively are considered as passable. Regardless the number of points, the E8 level is not passable.

Federal Republic of Nigeria:

- minimum passing score - "C";
- minimum number of disciplines - 5 (five);
- compulsory subjects - English and Mathematics.

Republic of Zambia: the right to continue education in higher education programs is provided by a Zambian School Certificate. The minimum number of disciplines that is taken into account when entering higher education institutions is 5 (five) with a grade of at least 6 (six).

Republic of Namibia: it is recommended to take into account at least 6 (six) disciplines when calculating the passing score for holders of educational documents issued by Namibian educational institutions and independently determine the entrance requirements for holders of educational documents issued by educational institutions in Namibia.

Republic of Kenya: the minimum grade specified in the document on secondary education issued by educational institutions of the Republic of Kenya, which gives the right to enter higher education institutions of the Republic of Kenya, is "C".

Republic of Sudan: educational documents issued by educational institutions of the Republic of Sudan must specify a mandatory list of disciplines:

- Arabic,
- English,
- Islam,
- Mathematics.

The minimum score for each discipline is 50.

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia: there are two ways to legalize student certificates obtained in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia:

- The education document is legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and then by the KSA Embassy in Kyiv.
- The document is legalized directly by the KSA Embassy in Kyiv, as the Embassy has a list of all Directors General for Education in all KSA regions. Due to the fact that the KSA Embassy in Kyiv has the authority to legalize educational documents, there is no need to legalize the document by the KSA Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In this case, further certification of documents is carried out by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine in Kyiv.